BRADLEY CHARLES STUBBS

"Coach Whisperer"

Bradley's knowledge of neuroscience enables him to transform the thinking of not only coaches and athletes, but also corporate executives, teachers and individuals to great success.

He has developed a unique, and exclusive, "Expect to Win" program relevant to any corporation, boardroom or classroom and his work in the medical field, over the past 5 years, is not only unprecedented but revolutionary.

Pro Athlete

ADAM HOLLIOAKE

Adam will be a speaker at The Ashes Dinner, 16th June, Crowne Plaza, tickets available now! At the dinner we will get a preview of the build up to the Ashes. Adam will also give a run down what was involved to reach the top levels of cricket, which also included an international career with England. Adam had a wonderful career and we can't wait to hear all about it. We will introduce Adam at the Business Breakfast.

FRIDAY 24TH FEBRUARY, 6:45am - 9:00am 2023

RYAN TUCKWOOD

Ryan Tuckwood is 1 half of the shark tank victors at SWISH Sales Coaching & is now widely regarded as the No1 ethical sales coach on the planet.

Ryan openly admits he was once a reluctant, failing sales professional, struggling initially and even sleeping on a bathroom floor at one stage with just 31 cents to his name.

After hitting that crisis point, studying fanatically and realising that, just like his old career as an engineer, sales was a process, he has now coached almost 10,200 businesses & individuals globally, showing his clients how to close over $1billion dollars in new sales revenue in the last few years alone. Companies such as Mercedes-Benz, National Storage, Westpac, AMEX, REIQ, Australian Skin Clinics and many, many more have all now come under his guidance.

Ryan has shared either the stage or the interview mic with a range of iconic figures, such as Grant Cardone, Jordan Belfort (Wolf of Wall Street), Mark Bouris, Michael Lane, Harry Singha to name a few...

Ryan and SWISH Co-Founder, Jack Corbett boosted their profile in 2018 after appearing on Channel Ten's 'Shark Tank', where they became the 1st company in Australian history to successfully secure the support of 3 Australian entrepreneurial powerhouses in Dr.Glen Richards, Steve Baxter & Andrew Banks, who are now shareholders & advisors for Ryan & SWISH Sales Coaching.

Meet Our Ambassadors...

Anna Wilkinson
Formerly a Managing Associate for international executive search firm Korn Ferry, Anna Wilkinson was born and brought up in England in a footballing family.

She moved to Australia some 30 years ago. She settled on the Gold Coast in 2009 and quickly became part of the Magic United Family, with her son and daughter spending their formative years with the club. Both of her children - in their teens - continue to pursue their love of football and Futsal.

Anna has remained close to the Magic club, spending time as a Director and playing for the Magic Mums football team for a couple of years.

Anna has over 30 years executive search and consulting experience, also undertaking strategic sourcing and talent identification for blue chip companies. Throughout her career she was lucky enough to work with senior levels in public companies as well as with smaller 'up and coming' businesses. She has worked closely with Owners, CEOs and senior leadership teams, with a keen focus on leadership skills, diversity and succession planning.

Growing up surrounded by football and living sport in general, Anna has a passion for encouraging the development of leaders in business and sporting endeavours, valuing diversity of thought and the contribution of women to the conversation. Involvement in team sports naturally encourages teamwork that flows into your approach to work and the Anna is supportive of the importance of grassroots football and the key need for community / family involvement.

Zara Tengrove
Senior Consultant
Scriptus Consulting.

Born on the Gold Coast, and refusing to leave this beautiful city, Zara has deep community roots, and it is not hard to see her love and passion for the city and its continued growth in business and sport.

Currently a Senior Consultant at Scriptus Consulting, she spends her days supporting both public and private sectors through meaningful change, developing new business services and products while finding new opportunities in an increasingly complex, disrupted and challenging environment.

With 'locally made' women-owned building and maintaining businesses within the Transport & Logistics sector, both within sales and marketing and business operations, Zara has worked for some of Australia's leading professional services organisations and ASX listed businesses, while also serving on many Boards and Committees.

It was daughter's business designs that she was first introduced to the Magic Group, giving Zara her first taste for the fighting spirit and 'never the same' that Magic Group team hold.

Dream to Magic Group's obvious passion to nurture kids, looking up to her coaches and teammates, eager to grow their opportunities in both the game and life, all while building a safe and fun environment, it is easy to see why Zara remained connected to the Magic Group as it continues to go from strength to strength.
